Day 8 | Typical Day on Safari (All meals)

The day starts with an early wake-up call between 5am and 5:30am. Tea, coffee and rusks are enjoyed together before heading out at first light. While seeing big game is always exhilarating, there are many other smaller species that are also captivating, and birding enthusiasts will be delighted at the approximately 350 species of birds recorded on the reserve. Halfway through the game drive, there's a stop for hot drinks and snacks, before returning to the lodge at around 9am for a full breakfast. Throughout the day, it's likely you will see wildlife around the lodge - nyala antelope and vervet monkeys are frequent visitors, though seeing some of the Big Five is also not uncommon.

While at leisure during the day you can spend time at the pool catching up on some reading, or indulge in a spa treatment. For those looking to something a little more active you can join a bush walk. There are a few of the finer things of nature that can be missed on a game vehicle so putting on your walking shoes and stepping into the reserve will get you up close and personal to interesting aspects of the wild unseen from the safari vehicle.

At around 3:30pm, everyone gathers for a decadent high tea, before heading out with your ranger and tracker for the afternoon game drive through the reserve. En route, you'll stop for a sundowner drink and will have a chance to stretch your legs as you watch the sun set over the distant peaks of the Drakensberg mountains.

As darkness falls, the nocturnal animals of the bush come out. The skilled tracker will scan the landscape using a spotlight, which illuminates animals' eyes. A variety of completely different species can be seen on the night drive back to the lodge. Arrival at the lodge is usually around 7pm, allowing time to freshen up before enjoying a sumptuous dinner.

- Overnight – Dulini (Moya, Leadwood, or River Lodge)

Day 9 | Typical Day on Safari (All Meals)

Another full day on safari - hopefully you will get to tick off those animals on your wish list that you haven't yet seen!

- Overnight – Dulini (Moya, Leadwood, or River Lodge)

Day 10 | Transfer to Skukuza Airport for Departure(Breakfast)

Your African Adventure has sadly drawn to a close and it's time to say farewell! This morning you will have your last morning game drive and breakfast at the lodge before checking out.
